Business Recommendation

- 1. Reduce excessive discounting on low-margin furniture products.
- 2. Focus marketing efforts on Technology products with strong profitability.
- 3. Improve shipping efficiency for high-value customers.

Key Risk Areas

- 1. Furniture category is generating weak profitability due to aggressive discounting and low margins.
- 2. Q3 performance showed noticeable profit decline despite stable sales trends.
- 3. Several sub-categories continue to operate at losses, increasing long-term business risk.

Executive Summary

The analysis reveals that Technology products and the West region are the primary revenue and profit drivers for the business. Furniture products demonstrate weaker profitability due to higher discount dependency. Customer analysis indicates that the Consumer segment contributes the highest sales share, while Standard Class remains the preferred shipping method. Strategic focus on profitable product
